Re: MUR 6734

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am writing in response to a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission (the "FEC") against Mr. Timothy Travis, among others, for alleged violation of Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. Based on our review of the complaint and publicly-available on-line FEC records, it appears that Mr. Travis may have inadvertently exceeded the biennial limit by approximately $12,450. In accordance with recommendations set forth in the FEC's Biennial Contribution Limit brochure (available on-line at <http://www.fec.gov/pages/brochures/biennial.shtml>), we are taking steps to obtain refunds from the recipients of contributions made by Mr. Travis to certain federal candidates in order to bring Mr. Travis' total contributions for the 2011-2012 cycle under the applicable limit. We anticipate that we will have completed these corrective actions within fourteen days of the date of this letter and will immediately notify you of same. In the meantime, please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

ROTHGERBER JOHNSON & LYONS LLP
